Washington, Feb. 22.-Today's session from the very beginning. In spite of igorous and influential opposition, Mr. Penrose of Pennsylvania, succeeded in speeches were delivered. After a sharp parliamentary squabble, Mr. Penrose moved that the resolution involving the seating of Mr. Quay be taken up for conderation. On an aye and no vote, the motion prevailed, 34 to 28. The majority while, on the contrary, others who voted for consideration probably will vote against seating him. The vote cannot, herefore, be regarded as a test of Mr. Quay's absolute strength in the senate. Following the taking up of the resolution Mr. Daniel (Dem., Va.) delivered a peech in which he vigorously supported Mr. Quay's right to a seat. Mr. Vest (Dem., Mo.) and Mr. Foraker (Rep., O.) divered notable speeches anent the Hawalian government bill. Both were

CLARK DEFENSE IS ALL IN Protestants Call the Attorney General of Montana in Rebuttal.

Washington, Feb. 23.-The Clark case sefore the senate committee on elections reached an important turning point today. The defense announced the conclusion of the presentation of its case and the first witness out on by the proseution for the purpose of rebuttal was The witness was Attorney General Nolan of Montana. It is understood nesses who will be called in rebutal. The attorneys of the prosecution say they ex next week. Attorney General Nolan's statement bore especially upon the inter views between himself and Witness Ly He asserted that Mr. Lyons told him that he knew that the votes of varius members of the legislature had been duly influenced in Mr. Clark's behalf.

Much of the day was spent in detailing the admissibility, in this conection, of General Nolan's report of the proceedings of the grandjury of Lewis and Clark county, Montana. It was decided to limit the questions upon it to the portions which had been brought into question by witnesses for the defense, When the committee met today, Mr Faulkner, for the defense, announced that he had determined to rest for the pres ent. There might be two or three witnesses to be called later, but they were not now in attendance. C. W. Clark was re-called for a few unimportan tions, and then Attorney General Nolan of Montana was placed on the stand by the protestants, in rebuttal of the testi mony adduced by the witnesses for Mr. Clark. Nolan said he had become acquainted with Marcus Daly in 1896, and that while he has been in office since that date Mr. Daly had never in any way attempted to interfere with him in the performance of bisaduties.
